THE OPRESSED MINORITY...

Peace

The word "peace" is tossed around so carelessly anymore that a proper definition is difficult to find. Peace is opposite of war. If this be the case, the world has never known peace. Not 100 per cent! History demonstrates this simple truth.

At Christmas time we hear much about Jesus Christ as the "Prince of Peace" and yet we know that Christianity, as just another religion has not brought peace. In fact, more people have been killed in the name of Christ than perhaps anyone else in history; The Crusades, the Inquisition.

Despite all the evidence, Jesus' promise still holds true. He promises peace. The Gospel of John acclaims, "Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid." (John 14:27)

The world cannot give peace to the individual. Money cannot do it. Merely joining a church cannot bring peace. Narcotics cannot bring peace. Alcohol won't do the job.

Politicians seek peace for the masses. They have done this for centuries. Kings and monarchs have done the same. Jesus Christ offers his peace to the individual. It must come from within. And only Christ can come to live within you -- if you let him.

People of all races, creeds, colors, in or out of the Establishment, are hungup, seeking peace. Jesus is the peace that fills the vacuum within you that nothing seems to satisfy.

Getting married, settling down and raising children sounds like "dullsville". And it is -- without the peace of Christ to come into the home. It is He that gives the home a meaning, a foundation. A reason.

Reverend Richard Wurmbbrand spent many years in Red prisons. Yet he knew peace with God. Brother Dallas Plemmons, five times lone survivor of his outfits while in combat in Korea, knows peace with God. He did not know it as a drinking, gambling, semi-pro boxer.

Before peace can come to you as an individual, you will have to be changed. You must be willing to let Christ become master of your life. He wants nothing but the best for you and has died to prove his love for you.

"Therefore, if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new." (II Corinthians 5:17)

Become a new creature in Jesus Christ and let the peace of God fill your very being. Just tell God you accept his son, Jesus, as your saviour and confess your sins to him. His death on Calvary has made it possible for all of us.

Pollution

So We're running out of oxygen and we're running out of food. All across our nation the cry to stop pollution and our population was heard, as students observed a special week designed to do something constructive about man's ecological problems. Trash-ins, walk-ins and birth control leaflets confronted students' parents, and the total community.

Some scientists feel that if immediate action is not taken, we are doomed as a nation. Great world and national famines are being predicted. Amidst our present crisis a great paradox exists. The American people, as demonstrated by human beings time after time, will throw caution to the wind until it blows right back in their faces. People are comfortable like they are and something inside them says, "Who cares, I'm happy." The question is, are they really happy?

The solution to all our problems as finite humans was proposed nearly 2,000 years ago. The solution does not deal with symptoms. All the crises we face today are only symptoms that are on the surface of a much more intensive pollution problem. Man himself, not his environment will determine his destiny. Man himself, will decide whether scientific technology will do away with our host of pressing problems or do away with the human race.

Einstein said, "It is not the explosive power of atomic war that I fear, but rather the explosive power for evil in the hearts of men." The solution must, and the one I speak of does, deal with what Psychology calls emotional behavior, what Philosophy calls irrational thinking, what Sociology calls cultural lag, what Humanities calls human weakness, and what History calls class struggle. The Bible calls it sin. Whatever we call it, we must admit it is true.

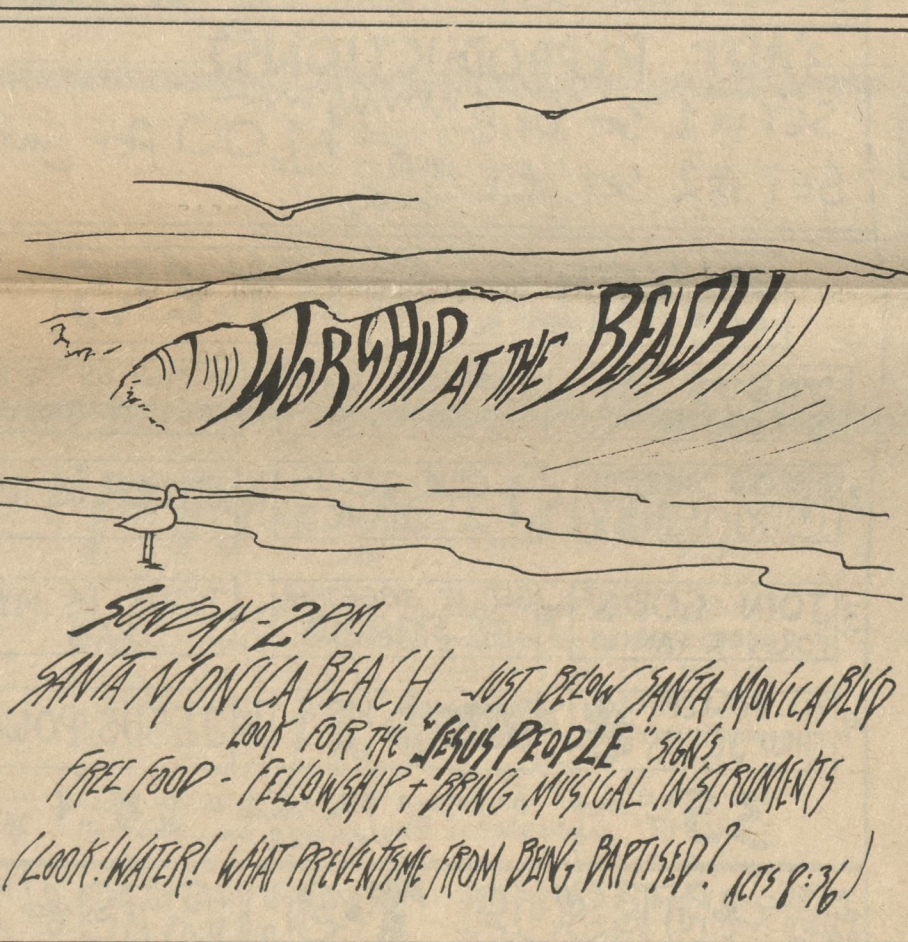

Germany, long one of the great cultured nations of the world, produced a Hitler and a Himmler; Joseph Goebbels had a Doctor of Philosophy degree. Educated people have inward drives, greeds, compulsions, passions and a lust for power that are not eliminated by any known process of education. Jesus said, "Your souls aren't harmed by what you eat, but by what you think and say!"

Jesus also came up with the correct diagnosis, that scholars in all their wisdom have yet to see. "It is the thought-life that pollutes, for from within, out of men's hearts, come evil thoughts of lust, theft, murder, adultery, wanting what belongs to others, wickedness, deceit, lewdness, envy, slander, pride, and all other folly. All these vile things come from within; they are what pollute you and make you unfit for God."

Do you see the problem? It's soul-pollution, man's rebellion, that separates him from God and the peace all men are seeking. Jesus said a man could clean out the waterways of his soul because the water He would give them "becomes a perpetual spring within them, watering them forever with eternal life."

Still we have the ever-mounting problem of birth control. The greatest advocate of birth control, spiritually speaking, is Satan. Nicodemus, a Jewish religious teacher, was puzzled, as well you may be, concerning this same subject. In the middle of the night, he came to Jesus and wanted to rap with him. Jesus told him in dead earnest, "Unless you are born again, you can never get into the Kingdom of God."

"Born again!" exclaimed Nicodemus.

"What do you mean? How can a man go back to his mother's womb and be born again?"

"Unless one is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the Kingdom of God. Men can only reproduce human life, but the Holy Spirit gives new life from heaven. So don't be surprised at my statement that you must be born again." Jesus was talking about our spiritual population. The only thing keeping you from being part of this population explosion is the "pill" - - your sin, your indifference to God. Don't let Satan's favorite contraceptive, the pleasures of the moment, keep you from experiencing God's abundant life. "But to as many as received Him, He gave the right to become children of God. All they needed to do was trust Him to save them."

Join the greatest, most meaningful, population explosion since the world began. Join God's forever family, there's even no danger of over-crowding.

GIVE JESUS A CHANCE!

God is not some far removed creature wrapped up in garbs of religious piety. This is where some of our churches have tried to put him. They have also attempted to portray him as a God of rules and regulations.

God is Jesus, trodding the dusty roads of Judea and the surrounding countryside, to give the lifegiving message to all who will accept him as the way to eternal life.

There was plenty of action at Calvary, when the Roman soldiers crucified him - - for us. It was a violent crowd who cheered when Pilate released Jesus to the blood-thirsty mob.

Jesus could have been a tremendous success at his trade. There was certainly a need for carpenters. He had years of experience and was a craftsman. He could have been a financial wizard. Knowing the traditions and laws of the Jewish religion, he might easily have been an esteemed churchman.

At one time, he had hundreds of thousands of followers. He could have begun a guerilla army. Instead he chose to take the violent road alone. When the real action came, he was by himself. Why?

The answer is so simple - great politicians, statesmen, world leaders and common man have stumbled over its simplicity. Because He loves us. The Hell's Angel, the rich man, the one hooked on narcotics, the learned churchman. The whole world. He came to redeem mankind.

He did this thing. He died for all of us. He chose to do it for us. No one forced him into anything.

Jesus is still where the action is. And his Holy Spirit is operating in his Born Again followers.

We all want action and excitement. The world can be exciting. There is no excitement like following the steps of Jesus. No draft here. He is calling for volunteers. He has chosen you but you can refuse.

When a young man goes into the civil armed forces, he does not spend weeks or years in preparing to be inducted. He goes in just like he is. The Army either makes a soldier of him or he drops out.

By accepting Jesus Christ as your saviour, it works the same way. Christ takes you just as you are. He asks your desire to serve in his invisible army of believers. Then he makes you a soldier of the Lord.

As a soldier of Christ you'll be far outnumbered. The enemy is in high places. He is in the streets. He is entrenched in the Establishment. He is in the home.

Jesus extends the invitation to all. There is no such thing as a "generation gap" in his army.

"Behold, I stand at the door and knock; if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come into him and sup with him, and he with me." (Revelation 3:20)

Listen to the voice of Jesus as he calls you to action.

"Midnight Cowboy!"

They say that going to see "Midnight Cowboy" is most enjoyable when you're in a depressed mood. The two main characters in the movie, played by Jon Voight and Dustin Hoffman, are depressed characters. Their lives are examples of struggles and big letdowns. When life and people don't meet up to our expectations, we easily get depressed. "Midnight Cowboy" is a study in that - it seems to really make people feel depressed inside.

But, yet, feeling depressed is so uncomfortable to human beings. We feel so unnatural, so miserable feeling that way. We long to be free inside, to be released from our misery. It's as if we were built to feel satisfied and relaxed. Millions of Americans need this relieved feeling so much they take billions of dollars worth of sedatives, sleeping pills, pain relievers, etc. when they can't find it anywhere else. The Beatles sing "There will be an answer/let it be? let it be." But where is the answer for depression?

The answer is not in drugs or anything that would have you run away from facing reality. It's like you need a light in the darkness sometimes. Jesus Christ said "I have come as light unto the world, that everyone who believes in Me may not remain in darkness." I have found Christ to be the one who can take my depression on Himself and release me to freedom. He does it because He cares for me and He's willing to do it for you, even today. Give Him your depression with your life and then watch how He gives to you.

Life Life Life

God loves you and has the heaviest life style for you.

HIS LIFE STYLE FOR YOU.

"No more man has ever seen, heard or even imagined what wonderful things God has ready for those who love Him." 1 Corinthians 2:9

EVERY PERSON HAS GONE HIS OWN WAY RATHER THAN GOD'S AND IS SEPARATED FROM GOD SO HE CANNOT KNOW GOD'S LOVE OR EXPERIENCE HIS LIFE-STYLE.

People were created to grove on God, but our stubborn selves caused us to go our way rather than His, so our contact with Him was broken.

"All have purposely done their own thing rather than God's; all fall short of God's ideal." Romans 3:23

Jesus Christ is God's bridge. He makes it possible for you to know God's love and have His life style.

"God showed His great love for us by sending Christ to die for us while we were still going our way rather than His." Romans 5:8

When you receive Jesus Christ as liberator and leader, you will know God's love and have His life style.

"All who receive Him, He makes children of God. All they have to do is trust Him to liberate them." John 1:12

"I am standing at the door and constantly knocking. If anyone hears me calling and opens the door, I will come in and talk with him spirit to spirit." Revelation 3:20

You can receive Jesus Christ right now by asking Him. Just talk to Him spirit to spirit. He knows what you feel inside, so your words are not as important as your attitude. You might say something like:

"Dear Jesus, I know I have done wrong. I am willing to turn from going my way. I open the door of my life and receive you as my liberator and leader. Thank you for forgiving me. Take control of my life center. Make me the kind of person you want me to be."

If that expresses your desire, then just tell Him and He will come into your life as He promised

INTERESTED?

"This is what God has said: That He has given us eternal life, and that this life is in His Son. So whoever has God's Son has life; whoever does not have His Son, does not have life. I have written this to you who believe in His Son so that you may know you have eternal life." 1 John 5:11-13

You are now a member of God's family and have many real brothers and sisters. Look for them, rap with them, and get to know them.

This will help you to know Him better and represent Him here:

1. Read His words and those of His children. 1 Peter 2:2
2. Talk with Him in every kind of situation. Philippians 4:6,7
3. Get together with other members of His family. Hebrews 10:25
4. Tell others about Him. Mark 5:19
5. Help other members of His family. Ephesians 4:29
